Hello All,

I forgot to put information about the Valentine Day Party into the newsletter.

First... The party will be on Tuesday, February 12 since we are not in school on Valentine's Day. It will be at 12:30 so there will be time for a quick snack and a bit of music.

Our "student committee" met and talked about some things we might do, so we will have an activity. The Popcorn Balls were such a big hit last time and the kids are trying to be aware of the dietary needs of all. They also suggested pretzels, rice crispy treats and strawberry milk! (Sounds like a party to me!) They also wanted music so one of the students is taking care of that. I will leave the snack items up to the Parent Group. I don't know if a SignUpGenius is necessary for so few items but if parents want to let us know what you might want to contribute, that would be fine.

As always, if the students are interested in delivering Valentine's to their classmates, we ask that you make certain that they have one for each of their classmates. We surely don't want anyone to be forgotten! You will find the class lists in the "Coletta Contacts" book – which everyone has a copy of.

Thanks, and again, I apologize for not putting this info in the Weekly Update
