Weekly Update November 14, 2018

Important Dates Thursday November 15 Urban Ecology Center

Reminders

Parent meeting tonight, Room 101, 6:00 PM

Promolux order forms due 11-28-18. This is the latest round of spirit-wear! Promolux is the company that has offered the items for us. Tyra Hammett the owner, is also a huge supporter of ColettaScope!

Opportunities

Christmas is coming... and with that we will again have our student gift exchange. Students in Room 1 will exchange names with students in Room 101 and purchase a small (under $5) gift for that classmate. We will do the buying during the school day prior to the Classroom Christmas Party. As we make more definite plans, we will send a letter to parents regarding kid exchange- $5 limit. Students will pick names week of 11-20-18.

Festive Family Night

Ms. Lisa, our Adventure Club leader (Karma) is offering a No-Cost ornament making event at her church. A flier was sent via email last week. We can resend it. Please take advantage of this fun time if you are able.

From Best Buddies chapter at Marquette University H.S.

Our Chapter will be having the annual "Feliz Navidance here at MUHS on Saturday December 1st and the kids from St. Coletta's are invited, so please pass the word. I'll send you more details but if you could pass it on to Mr. Bill and the kids that would be great. It runs from 6-9:30 p.m. and we invited other schools and their buddies from all over southeast Wisconsin.

Progress Reports

Our apologies for the delay in getting the progress reports to you. We are busy working on completing them. Thank you for your patience.

Winter Weather ~ From Ms. Rachel

Hi Parents, please consider sending your child wearing winter boots and bringing shoes to change into. This helps keep the classroom dry. I do have a bunch of boots that I would love to give away if anyone needs any.
