Weekly Update November 7, 2017

Important Dates: Friday, November 10 No School- Teacher In-service
Saturday, November 11 ColettaScope! See you there!!

What's Happening?

I'm sending the Weekly Update today instead of Wednesday because there are a lot of important things going on that need your attention.

Our trip to see The Little Mermaid at Divine Savior/Holy Angels H.S. is all set for Thursday, November 9. We will have an early lunch that day. Hot lunch is still planned for those who normally take hot lunch.

There is no school For St. Coletta on Friday, November 10 due to Teacher In-service. St. Sebastian School IS in session, so if you have children in both schools, be aware of that. The ColettaScope committee will also be setting up for ColettaScope Friday in the early evening so that we are ready for Saturday's event! Some of you have offered to assist as well. I will send out an email alerting you to what time we are able to load up vehicles and deliver to Mount Mary University.

ColettaScope

Family ColettaScope tickets were NOT sent home on Monday, November 6. My apologies! Watch for them today in your child's folder.

We hope that you will be able to arrive at Mount Mary University between 5:30-5:45 so that the students will be there in time to greet our guests and get situated in their respite room. Look forward to a fun evening all to benefit our great school!

Tell your friends!!!
