Weekly Update December 11, 2018

Important Dates Wednesday, December 12 Parent Meeting 6:00
Thursday, December 13 Urban Ecology Center
Friday, December 14 Dress-down day

Reminders

Remember, when we attend the UEC, it is a necessary thing to wear appropriate clothing and boots. In general, students should bring shoes to change into at school. Wearing boots is a really good idea even if there is no snow. The boots will help to keep them warm during the winter.

There is a Parent meeting tomorrow night (Wednesday). As far as I know there is no respite care available. There will be a guest speaker from the Milwaukee Police Department sharing what resources are available for schools and parents.

Students should have brought home information from the Milwaukee County Transit System yesterday. We had an informative presentation on the bus and went for a brief ride as an additional experience. I think the students were most excited about the bus “keychains”.

Christmas Activities

The St. Coletta Day School Christmas program on Sunday was amazing! The students did a great job and the food at the reception was awesome! Thanks especially to Sara Perez, Yanet Rivera and Pablo Lira for organizing the food and beverages and to everyone who helped with set-up and clean-up. It was such a fun time. We heard lots of good compliments on everything.

The Classroom Christmas Party will be held on Friday, December 21 starting at 12:00. As the students finish their lunch. We will assemble in Room 101 for the party. We will have only limited snacks since they will have just finished lunch. We like to have the students open their surprises one at a time as the gifting continues so everyone has a moment of surprise! A separate letter will be sent home with more details. We also have a student Committee working on some of the details for that party.

We always create a Naughty ‘n Nice list and based on behavior, a student may find themselves making up time the day of the activities on December 21 and miss part of the party. And, yes, in the past, some students have missed part of the fun. It’s all about their good choices. And as you know, there are consequences for making poor choices. The students will know, on a daily basis, where they stand in respect to the party.

We also have our “classroom auction” the week before Christmas break. To refresh your memory, the students earn “school” money by completing their classroom jobs. They get paid on a regular basis if they have completed their timecard. The money is put into their savings account and can then be withdrawn for the auction. We are NOT in need of auction items at this time. The auction will be held on Wednesday afternoon, December 19.
