Weekly Update      March 27, 2019

Important Dates:    St. Coletta Day School Spring Break: Friday, April 19-April 26.
School resumes on Monday, April 29

Reminders

There seems to be some ongoing confusion about days that we are or are not in school. Let me see if that can be made clear. We send home a monthly calendar with the dates clearly marked if we do not have school. In fact, the dates are literally crossed off on that calendar. It is also mentioned in the Weekly Update which all of you are saying that you receive. Another resource is the school web-site. The calendars are posted there as well. Additionally, at the beginning of the school year, all families received a yearly calendar with the back-to-school information.

Would it be helpful, for next school year, to have a printed, school calendar for the entire year that you can hang somewhere for easy viewing and reference? This has been suggested and we can certainly look into this as a 5th option. If you think this would be a good idea, please respond to Mr. Bill via the school email: scdsmke@gmail.com and let him know your thoughts.

We are once again low on classroom snacks. If you haven't sent any classroom snacks in for a while, please consider doing so. We usually eat our snack as part of our morning meeting between 8:15-8:40. The students look forward to the snack especially if they have had their breakfast early in the morning. It's a good morning pick-me-up and helps them to focus and be ready for a morning of learning.

You can earn your child a Dress Down coupon just by reading this Weekly Update! On a piece of paper, simply put YOUR name, your CHILD'S name and the year that the school was founded. If you are not sure what year the school started, you can find the answer on the school website. Send it to school on Friday, March 29 to the attention of Mr. Bill.

Third quarter grades are in the process of being entered into the progress reports. We will let you know when to expect the progress report sent home.

We have hired a Teaching Assistant who will begin as soon as all the paperwork is completed and returned. Ms. Sarah is excited to start working with your children. She has a background in Special Education and several years of teaching experience. We look forward to all of you meeting her. If you want to earn your child a second dress down coupon, write Ms. Sarah on the backside of the paper mentioned in this message!

April calendars will be sent home this Friday. Remember that our Easter break begins on Good Friday, April 19 and goes through Friday, April 26. We start back to school on Monday, April 29.
